

Pricing & Payment Policy

Guitar53 uses a simple monthly payment model for both 1-to-1 lessons and group classes. This keeps things clear, consistent, and easy to budget throughout the year.

All pricing is based on a 46-week teaching year, spread evenly across 12 equal monthly payments, which includes:

- 2 weeks summer break
- 2 weeks Christmas break
- 2 tutor holiday weeks

Payments are made on the 1st of each month, in advance.

3. How Payments Work

- Payments are made monthly, on the 1st of each month
- Payments are made in advance
- Cash or standing orders are the standard payment methods

Details for standing order payment:

Account Name: Guitar53
Account No. 75902274
Sort Code: 04-03-33

- Monthly fees remain the same regardless of where holidays fall
- Holiday weeks are already built into the 46-week calculation

4. Missed Sessions

1-to-1 Lessons

- Please give 48 hours' notice if you need to cancel
- Short-notice cancellations are charged as normal
- If a lesson is cancelled within the agreed notice, payment still applies. I will do my best to offer a rescheduled lesson, but this cannot always be guaranteed due to availability.
- If Guitar53 cancels, a catch-up lesson or credit will be provided

Group Classes

- Classes run on a fixed timetable, so individual rescheduling isn't possible
- If a learner misses a class, the monthly fee remains unchanged
- If Guitar53 cancels a class outside planned holidays, a catch-up class or credit will be provided

5. Ending Tuition

- 2 weeks' notice is required for ending either 1-to-1 lessons or group classes
- Any sessions owed by Guitar53 will be honoured or credited
